

Watcha, Don't Wanna Be The King

I blow a fuse, have you heard the news? You know?
I'm buff, I had enough, I'm not buff to that fkin' stuff
Carry out my duty duty, I'm not your nutty nutty
Don't you know, I'm not your goody goody, not your buddy buddy
I wanna die like a free man, talk and walk like a human
I don't wanna be the king but I want a naked queen! Not a drag, but a reel
I wanna be a prince for once so bag off!
Waaa I'd better better go, better better don't wanna be the king anymore
I don't give a shit of my rank, don't wanna be the king anymore
I'd better let you know, that I got to go! Don't wanna be the king anymore
Stay 'cause It's just begun now
All my life I've been on the throne, don't wanna be the king anymore
I'd better let you know that I got to go! Don't wanna be the king anymore
Stay 'cause I'll give you all the world
Waaa I'd better better go, better better don't wanna be the king anymore
Starting a fresh fresh, let me be a party breaker, I'm a troublemaker bugging you like woody woodpecker I spend my bloody time bumming around the town What a drag jack! Leave me alone, I've got many things that I really could do without you and your bloody conviction, your nasty addiction. Complication!
I don't wanna wanna be back to this scary stuffy movie! I wanna be prince for once so bag off!
