

Watchtower, The Eldritch

Music: White, Keyser

Lyrics: White

Twilight undisturbed - a formidable silence

The mind rampant in its solitary depression

Vacuous feelings - the sudden strike of fear

Drawn into the nocturnal empire

A shadow strikes in the absence of light

And molds the terror into insanity

Hands claw at familiar faces - running from the unknown

Is there now something real?

Resist the unseen - the obscure

Resist the panic - painful foreshadowing

Destroy yourself - inflicted apprehension

Awaken subconscious to the primal fear!

Intrusive misery - the darkness closes in

Frantic fit of self-preservation

Impulsive action - screaming confusion

Imagination overpowers reason
