

Waterdown, Gentlemen, Place Your Bets rational mind says it's for faint my senses tell me it is not that same old game, the rules have changed but somehow it remains the same i play for highscore

this can't be all that has changed this can't be all that makes the difference
i play for highscore
i take a free fall and i am sure, yes pretty sure that this time intention can't be so wrong this can't be all yes and i am sure, yes i'm pretty sure
yes and i'm aware that i might be there sharing a sunset all by myself
