

Watermark, Don't You Know

I have hidden you
I have set you apart and
Saved the best for me saved the best for me..(oh)
I love you that much that I would
Hold the things that you think you want and..
I'll give you the things that you really need.

Don't you know that I know you
Don't you know I know where you are
And all of heaven sings over you
Because of the depths of My love!

I love you with a love that you can not think of..no
I'm near you even though you feel far away..far away
I've rescued you and carried you
And caused your world to stop
Just so I could hear you say that You love me too!!

All of heaven sings over you(4x)
