

Wave, Moon Underwater

Looking at you
Through the window
You're like the girl on the cover of Style magazine
I try to be cool
But you don't notice me there
Just another guy tryin' to get attention from you

Well I'm in the dark
On how to get to you
Cuz i can't touch the light
That's why to me you're like the

Moon underwater, you're pulling me under
An illusion that's always out of my reach
It's like chasing my shadow
I can't help but follow
I'll never catch up to you
You're just like the moon underwater

What do I do
Here I am
I take a bus everyday makin' mininum wage
I must be deludin' myself
But I can't stop thinking
how someone like me could ever stand a chance

Well I'm in the dark
On how to get to you
Cuz i can't touch the light
That's why to me you're like the

Moon underwater, you're pulling me under
An illusion that's always out of my reach
It's like chasing my shadow
I can't help but follow
I'll never catch up to you
You're just like the moon underwater

I could drown in the thought of us together
And though I'm foolin' myself
Baby everytime I see your face
It makes me crazy enough to lose time and space, yeah

Moon underwater, you're pulling me under
An illusion that's always out of my reach
It's like chasing my shadow
I can't help but follow
I'll never catch up to you
You're just like the moon

Moon underwater, you're pulling me under
An illusion that's always out of my reach
It's like chasing my shadow
I can't help but follow
I'll never catch up to you
You're just like the moon underwater

Yeah, yeah (6X)
