Wave, New Sensation

I can't take it anymore I'm tearing down these walls Don't know why but it's more then a feelin'

I'm walking out the door Ain't no sign at all But I know that I'm not dreamin'

Someday, I will riding on a wave Off the rails on this runaway train I don't know what tomorrow brings

Chorus:

I feel it coming, it's in the air A new sensation from out of nowhere I will take you there Oh whoa whoa oh

I've got nothing left to hide
I've opened up my mind
And I'm ready for a new beginning
If there's another world outside
I wanna see it with my own eyes
Cause I'm tired of waiting
