

Wave, Thats How It Feels

its such a crazy ride you feel it deep inside it seems like i could touch the sky, the sky just being close to her she heals me, shes my cure from all the pain out in the world thats how it feels when you know you've finally found them cant wait until your back around them its like wakin up from a dream that turns out to be real thats how it feels

theres no more mystery as long as she's with me its all become so clear to see

thats how it feels when you know you've finally found them

its like driving way too fast its like laying on the beach, when the ocean air smells so sweet
ya thats how it feels

so real

thats how it feels when you know you've finally found them
its like wakin up from a dream that turns out to be real (repeat until fade)
