

Wave, Wherever You Are

Up and down this one way street
Black and white is all I see
For this moment time stands still
This illusion seems so real

But this will take sometime
And it leaves me wondering

Chorus
Wherever you are was never this far
Still I feel you breathing
All that I need is just out of reach
Can you hear me calling

Free falling into the sky
Feeling weightless I close my eyes
I can't escape these lucid dreams
Coz nothing out there is as it seems

But this will take sometime
And it leaves me wondering

Chorus

Wherever you are
Was never this far
Still I feel you breathing
And I'm falling out...

Chorus twice

Wherever you are
