Waylon Jennings, But That's All Right

I gave my heart I gave my all you built me up then you let me fall
You wore my ring upon your hand but then you changed your mind
But that's all right I looked around and found true love
(ac.guitar)
You made me laugh you made me cry I wished that day that I could die
You never dreamed that by and by I'd be glad you changed your mind
Yes that's all right I looked around and found true love
