

Waylon Jennings, I Do Believe

I'n my own way I'm a believer in my own way right or wrong I don't talk too much about it it's something I keep working on I don't have too much to build on my faith has never been that strong there's a man in that old building he's a holy man, they say he keeps talking about tomorrow while I keep struggling with today he preaches hell, fire and brimstone and heaven seems so far away

I do believe in a higher power one that loves us one and all not someone to solve our problems or to catch me when I fall he gave us all a mind to think with and to know what's right or wrong he is that inner spirit that keeps us strong

in my own way I'm a believer but not in voices I can't hear I belive in a loving father one I never have to fear that I should live life at it's fullest just as long as I am here
