

Waylon Jennings, Woman Don't You Ever Laugh

Yes I guess I let you make a fool of me
So I'll just go my foolish way and let you be
But if you should find some human in my misery
All I ask is please don't laugh woman don't you ever laugh at me
All I expect is your respect for the pride inside of me
All I ask is please don't laugh woman don't you ever laugh at me
(guitar)
I guess I was just a joke to you right from the start
And the biggest live fool of all those when I gave my heart
Now it's past you don't jest it affects my sanity
All I ask is please don't laugh woman don't you ever laugh at me
All I expect is your respect...
Uhuh woman don't you ever laugh at me
