

Wckr Spgt, Because (She'll Do Anything)

I just stood there and stared her straight in the eye and with a little smile I just stood there smiling staring right at her eyes
Because she'll do anything
I opened my mouth and thought about my teeth and moved my tongue and made a little pool of spit on the tip and then I swallowed it.
Because she'll do anything
And I thought I saw her smiling back knowing that I meant it knowing how I thought she knew what I had said.
Because she'll do anything
