

We Are Defiance, Hurricane You

I've made mistakes, I'm far from perfect.
But this time you went too far, and I'm begging you for closure.
Are you trying to suck the life right out of me?
I need to go and find some sanity
Yeah you really fucked me over.

We were staying up late like there was something to do.
In fast lane like there's nothing to lose.
I guess I should have known I'd lose everything to hurricane you.

Here's to those summer days and wasted winter nights.
Truth told you know we weren't that old, but we swore that it felt right.
And some day when you're strung along, and out there all alone.
I won't be far strumming my guitar.
And you'll forever be singing along...

Do do do dodo do do dodo do dodo
Do do do dodo do do dodo do dodo

You're only good at causing problems, wearing drama on your back.
You only breed disaster.
Your waves crash all around
Like a landslide bound to bring this whole city down.
I need to start running faster.

We were staying up late like there was something to do.
In fast lane like there's nothing to lose.
I guess I should have known I'd lose everything to hurricane you.

Here's to those summer days and wasted winter nights.
Truth told you know we weren't that old, but we swore that it felt right.
And some day when you're strung along, and out there all alone.
I won't be far strumming my guitar.
And you'll forever be singing along...

Do do do dodo do do dodo do dodo
Do do do dodo do do dodo do dodo

This cannot be love
(Tell me what love is)
I can't comprehend
(I really need to wake up)
How you sleep
Quit wasting tears on lies you can't defend.
I knew I should have let go
(I'm sorry no one's perfect)
It didn't have to end this way
(I am broken)

Here's to those summer days and wasted winter nights.
Truth told you know we weren't that old, but we swore that it felt right.
And some day when you're strung along, and out there all alone.
The jokes on you, I'll be singing too baby you did me wrong.

Baby you did me wrong.
I hope your friends are all singing along?

Do do do dodo do do dodo do dodo (you did me wrong)
Do do do dodo do do dodo do dodo
