

We The Living, Sound Of Love

I know this is starting to seem undeniable
And I know this may be starting to feel like a little bit of you in me
And I know you will plan this out with the precision of the military
But I see this is starting to be something incredible

Listen to me
This is the sound of you falling in love
Can you feel it? (2x)
This is the sound of the beat of your heart
Can you feel it?
You can feel it now
Listen to me
This is the sound of you falling in love
Can you feel it? (2x)
This is the sound of the best thing that you'll ever know ever know
You should hear it now
Listen

And I see this is starting to feel like we're drawing lines in the sand
And I know this may be starting to feel like a clock that's tick tic ticking down
And I know this is going to be something you'll try to wrap your head around
But I see this is starting to be a bomb that's tick tic ticking down

This is the sound of you falling in love
Can you feel it? (2x)
This is the sound of the beat of your heart
Can you feel it?
You can feel it now
Listen to me
This is the sound of you falling in love
Can you feel it? (2x)
This is the sound of the best thing that we'll ever know ever know
You should feel it now
Listen

You're like a joke of her before
Say it to me anyway
But I wish I wish I had found enough to believe you're in love
Can't find it but I
Wish I wish I had found enough to believe you're in love
Say it to me anyway (2x)

Listen to me
This is the sound of you falling in love
Can you feel it? (2x)
This is the sound of the beat of your heart
Can you feel it?
You can feel it now
Listen to me
This is the sound of you falling in love
Can you feel it? (2x)
This is the sound of the best thing that we'll ever know ever know
You should feel it now
Listen to me
Listen to me, yeah
