

Webb Pierce, Those Wonderful Years

Anytime you need me I'll come running back to you
Even though you left me I'll hide my cry to be with you
I throw back my head just to hold back my tears
For I'll never forget those wonderful years
I'll never forget those wonderful years

(Should you meet someone to tell you you were right for leaving me Tears don't keep me waiting I'll tell you to our eternity)
Yes I throw back my head...
(I throw back my head just to hold back my tears)
I'll never forget those wonderful years
I'll never forget those wonderful years.
