

Webb Pierce, True Love Never Dies (1964)

I've heard the sayin' all my life that true love never dies
I never could see how this could be
Since I left you my wounded heart keep telling me I'm wrong
Go back and try true lover never dies
My foolish pride won't let my heart overpass my stubborn mind
My heart keeps saying please go back don't run away and hide
For you'll face so many bitter years alone and then you'll cry
Can't you be alive true love never dies
(steel - fiddle - piano)
My foolish pride...
