

Webb Pierce, Yes I Know Why I Want To Cry

Yes I know why I want to cry it's over you and I'm painting the town feeling blue
Should you ever love one that's untrue
Then you'll know why I want to cry it's over you

Well tomorrow I'll be twice as blue I'm so low I could die over you
I should have known that you'd never be true
Yes I know why I want to cry it's over you
(fiddle - steel - guitar)
Yes I know why I want to cry...

Well I tried you all over again and you just smiled all over again
Yes I'm asking for heartaches anew
Yes I know why I want to cry it's over you
