

Webb Wilder, Samson & Delilah's Beauty Shop

"Samson And Delilah's Beauty Shop"

(Webb speaks)

"There is a sheet of paper being circulated in the room which bears a terrific lie. At no time ever was this aggregation known as the Beatnicks. We have the greatest of admiration for Maynard G. Crebbs and his kind. However, we were the BeatNECKS. We got tired of pointing to our neck, you can't do it in an add because they always misspell it and you go around with a news paper like this all day. So, now we are and I am Webb Wilder. The names Wilder, Webb Wilder. And for those beatnicks in the crowd more power to ya. And for those beatNECKS in the crowd... maybe you don't know what a beatneck is? Maybe a little boy, possessed of the mind of a full grown man bought a Beatles record in a Gibson's discount center in Hattiesburg, Ms and JUST MAYBE, He grew up to be Webb Wilder."

Samson and Delilah's Beauty Shop
Come on, baby, let your long hair drop
Samson and Delilah's Beauty Shop
Hey, little baby, let your long hair drop

I'ma ease your mind and tell ya
Where to find the best salon past the local liquor store
S'quarter of a mile beyond
They begin to whirlin' and a'twirlin'
And a'curlin' your hair
And you can be believin' you'll be happy when You're leavin' from there

Mrs Hays' highest praise
Is something very hard to win
She'll never set her face
In anybody else's place again
Well awhile ago Mr Cole
Would never even step inside
But now you know it is so he even gets his grey hair dyed
