

Weekend Excursion, Break Away

Your scent remains beneath my sheets
Why did you leave?
You should have stayed for a while
There's only so much here that I can do
Sit and long for you
And I'd crawl to see you smile

Bridge:

Take a look at you up there
I can almost reach you
If you could tell me how
Take a look at me down here
I'm searchin for the strength
To rise up to you now

Chorus:

And I break away from emptiness
As I struggle through all my innocense
Hear me out now baby
As I try to set things right
That wasn't me tonight

You know I try so hard to shine
But I compare to the damned
In the light of daddy's little girl
Baby, one more thing before you go
In case you didn't know
I wouldn't trade you for the world

Bridge

Chorus

That wasn't me tonight
