

Weekend Excursion, Moving On

Glance out the window
See the lines pass me by on the road
I'm moving onward as another chapter unfolds

Chorus:
And I wonder who will I love?
And who will I see?
Most of all I wonder
Who will I be?
It seems like yesterday I had it all
And nothing was wrong
But the times are changing
And I am moving on

Feel so alone but at the same time
I feel so alive
My time here is over
I'm off to a new place
A new life

Chorus

I was starring at the back of her car
As she drives away
Our time together, its over now
I can hear myself say

Who will she love?
And who will she see?
Most of all I wonder who will she be? Yeah
It seems like yesterday we had it all
And nothing was wrong
But the times are changing
Cause I am moving on again
Moving on again, again, and again

Chorus

Moving on (moving on)
Again, again, and again

Everybody, the world, its moving
Everybody, the world, its moving
Everybody, the world, its moving
Hey, hey its moving 3x
