

Ween, Push Th' Little Daises

when u lie kiss your baby bye bye bye and if you're true
the whole wide world will laugh with you when we see nothing's wrong with you and me with you time will tell it might even bring a wedding bell if u think that i'm a loser well you suck, cause u know i ain't nothin' but a user of your love can't get enough
girl it's true
the whole wide world is smilin' with you push th' little daises and make em come up sometimes i know sometimes i'm on the go but i'm comin' back so don't give me no flack it's all you
and it's me too
it's your world
you're the girl happier than shit
things that might go click with me click with you
is that love?
is that love? oh.
push th' little daises and make em come up (x8) watch the litle daises grow, little daises grow now just push th' the little daises and make 'em come up watch them grow watch them grow as i push the little daises and make 'em come up make 'em come up
make 'em come up, say
push th' little daises and make em come up (x7)
