

Weeping Willows, Blue And Alone (Intro Pistvakt)

I saw your face in a dream last night
A vision so bright and so clear
Though you were lost in the city lights it felt as if you were here

In my dreams I hold you tight
I wish that I never let go
In my dreams I have no fright 'cause I'm no longer alone

We will never touch again
I'm under a spell since you're gone
We will never kiss again
I'm under a curse and I'm done
I feel so blue and alone

You had fire in your eyes
And magic was in your touch
I want you back and I despise that what I want is too much

In my dreams I hold you tight
I wish that I never let go
In my dreams I have no fright 'cause I'm no longer alone

We will never touch again
I'm under a spell since you're gone
We will never kiss again
I'm under a curse and I'm done
I feel so blue and alone
