

Weeping Willows, Emptiness

My eyes stare into nothing
My life has turned upside down
Today I stop believing
I can't see any future
There's no light in the distance
I been living in a castle
Made of air

Thrown into nowhere
Betrayed with a kiss
I see no bright tomorrow
There's just emptiness

I stumble in the darkness
I forget to fall asleep
My whole world is burned to ashes
There's no thirst, there's no hunger
Nothing hurts, nothing touches
This time I've lost the faith in life itself

Thrown into nowhere
Betrayed with a kiss
I see no bright tomorrow
There's just emptiness (x3)

There's just emptiness
