

Weeping Willows, Heart Of Hearts

When I sing about love
I sing about you you make a grey day colorful and when I sing about life
I sing about you
you help me find it meaningful.

It's deeper than oceans deeper than oceans
my feelings for you in my heart of hearts
I belong to you.

I don't miss my old friends and our charades
I don't pretend when I'm with you you made me drop my guard you made me sing
that's why my heart belongs to you.

It's deeper...
