Weeping Willows, Stairs

What will happen when I die Will I pay for all My crimes Because sometimes I did fail, although I tried to try Will You remember me this way or will the picture change It's too late to go back; oh it's much too late when I was young I didn't care, I was busy crawling down the stairs

With the voice I thought was mine I didn't sing, I mime two words that almost rime well those where confusing times Will You remember Me this way or will the picture change It's too late to go back; oh it's much too late When I was young I didn't care, I was busy crawling down the stairs

Please don't forget Me when I'm gone, 'cause my life must have some work And please forgive me if im wrong 'cause I didn't mean to be all wrong

I didn't mean to be No, I didn't mean to be I didn't mean to be all wrong I didn't mean to be I didn't mean to be No I didn't mean to be
