

Weeping Willows, True To You

If you have ever had a broken heart
If you've been pushed aside the dreams all torn apart
Oh when you was young it's cold in the shaddow of love

Everytime I touch myself I wish it's you
Everytime I hurt myself I think of you
By lying to myself I am true
True to you
True to you

I'll be freezing in that shaddow of love
I can't believe our only night could be enough
Oh what can I do
Cause I'll never get over you

Everytime I touch myself I wish it's you
Everytime I hurt myself I think of you
By lying to myself I am true
True to you
True to you

Everytime I touch myself I wish it's you
Everytime I hurt myself I think of you
I'm lying to myself
I'm lying to myself
I'm lying to myself
But I'm true
I'm true to you
True to you
True to you
True to you
True to you
True to you
True to you
True to you
