Weezer, Misstep

Never before have I fallen for someone who'd go on and do me like this You were the one who would always follow through with the ease of building care for a kiss

Say you love me Say you love me

Get out the house 'cause as long as you're cheating your concience will sit up and say

Betting on losers is always a good way to lose what you wanted to prove

Say you love me Say you love me

You should be talking better But still you tried to better me And now you'll be making the truth

(solo)

You should be talking better But still you tried to better me And now you'll be making the truth

Get out the house 'cause as long as you're cheating your concience will sit up and say

Betting on losers is always a good way to lose what you wanted to prove
