

Weezer, Seafaring Jamb

Everybody, don't make me laugh cuz it's not so insane
In the morning it comes to pass and there's no one to blame

I'll tell you
my weakness

And if you knew the things i say then you'd have to believe in the spirits above the sand and the man in the tree

I'll tell you
my weakness

If you like it there I'll be most everywhere
tell me to stay
leave me to stay

I'll tell you
my weakness

If you like it there
I'll be most everywhere
tell me to stay
leave me to stay
