

Weezer, Sugar Booger

Break my spine, sugar booger
Break down and lose your sweet mind now
'Cause that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be Yeah that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be

Waste my time sweetie, pretty
Bust out the hammer time moves y'all
'Cause that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be
Yeah that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be

Everytime you turn around
I just want to hit the ground
Locked up in your little world
Makes me feel so insecure
And now

Draw that line, maybe baby
We could get up and kick it down
'Cause that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be
Yeah that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be

Spank my plank, funky, pokey
Your children now you must bust out
'Cause that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be
Yeah that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be

Everytime you turn around
I just want to hit the ground
Locked up in your little world
Makes me feel so insecure
And now

Show me now

Everytime you turn around
I just want to hit the ground
Locked up in your little world
Makes me feel so insecure
And now

Draw that line, maybe baby
We could get up and kick it down
'Cause that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be
Yeah that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be

'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be
'Cause that's the way, that's the way that you wanna be

Yeah that's the way.
