

Weezer, Superstar

(Rivers "Who's Afraid to?")

There used to be a better kind, of rockin' rolling super stars.
They'd strut around and do their thing,
All I know how to do is sing.

And I don't do that so well,
I never saw many things from hell,
I'm just a regular white guy who's afraid to...

I guess that I could drink a beer,
and smoke a dobbie to get duced.
But that depleates my energy,
And screws up all my business moves

Gotta make it stonecold clean
Gotta dress up to my name

I'm just a regular white guy,
whos afraid to rock so hard,
I'd break my guard,
and give myself away,
away...

-Guitar Solo-

Gotta make it stonecold clean
Gotta dress up to my name

I'm just a regular white guy,
who's afraid to rock so hard,
I'd break my guard,
and give myself...(away)
and kill myself....
away...away..
away..away..
away.. away.....away!
