

Wellwater Conspiracy, Born With A Tail

Spent a long time watching
We watch watching
Get Fi (??)
And the blind old twist of fate
Keeps passing me by
Through it all you keep standing
Left abandoned
In the night
Held on to what you had then
When you let me inside

Keep along always pushing
When you push me aside
Kept barking out commandments
When your words were advise
Keep a pace you can't handle
Left baffed
And dry

Born with a tail
Determined not to fail

It's time to understand it
I can't describe it
Full of lies (?)
Give back what's been taken
Reawaken
The crime
Can't go back to what you gave up
Gal-u-lay-up (?)
Then goodbye

I was born with a tail
