

Wendy And Lisa, I've Got A Big Bowl Of Cherries

i've got a big bowl of cherries and i eat them
one by one
the sweet and sour come
i taste them
until the bowl is gone
and i've got a big bowl of cherries and they make my lips turn red and then my face and head because of what i've said but this is the life i've lead and sometimes

i wonder why i'm here
and then i'm just glad i'm not over there.
and then there is
you who makes life a dream.
and sometimes i'm nowhere.....

i measure every day
and wonder what to say
but i'm thankful
anyway.
oh i'm thankful.....
and i'm thankful anyway.
