

Wendy Moten, Whatever You Imagine

Whatever you imagine
Can one day come to be....
There are dreams to awaken,
Roads to be taken.
Follow them and they will set you free...
Whatever you imagine
Is where your heart can go.
There are worlds filled with treasure,
Time without measure,
To learn whatever you may need to know.
Imagine,
And you and I can fly past the sun
And leave all our doubts and fears behind us.
You see, that's just what can happen
When you look inside your mind.
There's no limit to the wonders you can find!
Whatever you imagine
Can make your life brand-new.
There are miracles waiting,
So keep concentrating
And I promise you that if you do.....
Whatever you imagine can come true.....
