

Wenlock, Waiting On The Earth

In the night I wanna search patrol when no lies no want in a red warm to find I want to stand as a pk
can I find and kill a somebody

Still why want away
Is gonna stay here for this nice trip

In the night I wanna wait til last day
In the dine i'm dreaming ambatche
In the crawn calm for a pk
But aback at the stain on my soul

Still why why Bless for the sacred in sys now grill

How many times can you follow me, follow me how many times it was me I couldn't feel, you feel you want these lies

How many times can you follow me, follow me
you want these lies me

(electric guitar solo)

La lala la lala la lala la lala La lala la lala la lala...no way...no way... no way...no way, no way, no way , no way!
Argh!!! How many times can you follow me?
How many times is me? Call your fare.
Your farecrow me , argh!

In the night I wanna search patrol when
no lies no want in a red warm
to find I want to stand as a pk
can I find and kill a somebody

Still why want away
Is gonna stay here nicer

In the night I wanna wait til last day
In the dine i'm dreaming ambatche
We will come for listening pk
But I'm back to stain on my soul

Still why want Please gonna stay here for this nice trip

How many times can you follow me, follow me
How many times was me I couldn't feel, you feel your want is like me

How many times can you follow me, follow me
How many times was me I couldn't feel, you feel
your want is like me
