You ain't got to worry 'bout a thing, it's forever
Red rose petals on my bed
I can't get you out my head
A night that you won't regret
These feelings you can't neglect
Red rose petals on my bed
I can't get you out my head
A night that you won't regret
Baby, tell me where to go and we can fly away, yeah
Anywhere you want, girl, you can roll with me, yeah
Pack up a bag and we can go missin', yeah-yeah
Champagne and kisses in different locations (Wes)
