

West Indian Girl, Solar Eyes

I know, I know, I know there's a world of space between
The stars are suns that ebb and flow the words we speak

Hold on, breath tight, never ever let it go
Your eyes at twilight shine

I know, I know, I know we shed skin to feel
And float above like birds disguised we fly, it's real

Hold on, breath tight, never ever let it go
Your eyes at twilight shine
We can make it, we can break it, or we can take it slow
So please stay, please stay, we'll find a way to never let it go

I'll never let you go and you'll never let me go
Tell me your secret
