

Wester, My Curse

i'm sorry if i've been keeping you up at night
the morning can't come soon enough when there's no more nails to bite.
your dreams are all jealous and the nightmares, well they don't complain pinch all you want, you'll never wake up from this one.

i am everything.

i'm the blood in your veins, the cause of all your pain, i'll never give up till you're mine.

i'll suck the life from you

i'll never stop hunting you

i'll never stop hurting you

i'll never stop healing you

i'll never stop hunting you

i am everything.

i'm the blood in your veins, the cause of all your pain, i'll never give up till you're mine.

i'll suck the life from you

i'm the one who goes out late at night to hunt for what i need to survive.
