

Wester, Poison My Soul

Ignite my soul with penetrating lies
Engulf my heart and cover up my eyes
Tear me down and build me up again
We'll never know when it will all begin
Steal my thoughts
Release my tears
Recreate paralyzing fear
Eat out my heart
Poison my soul
Ash to ash and dust to dust
We all fall down
Cry out for life
Pray for death
The pain it drives you
To complete insanity
Fallen from grace
Put in your place
Instigated and sentenced to death
All within your final breath
