

Westlife, My Hero

You've known me at my lowest stage
You've brought me through the buring rain
You knew who you were navigating
I feel lov
Even in my darkest place
I feel a light I can't explain
And it's something that is ever changing,

You've seen the long nights,
Tthe I'm not alrights
The ebb in the tide
That's sold in the red eyes
You don't know how you're saving my life tonight
Cause I feel like

You are my hero,
And I want you to know that I feel like
You are my hero,
And I want you to know,

I've been wrong
More time that i have been right
But you don't bring that up in fights
You held me when i felt defeqted

I feel strong
Whenever you've nbeen around
I see ytu ihidden in the crowd
You make me feel like i am needed
