

Westworld, Limbo

Well you know it's been awhile
I keep letting go of things and people too
Getting closer to the where
But how and when I just don't know till I get there

Lately I really miss you
Yeah I miss you all the time
Feels like I should be with you
But it's just my lonely mind

Another sidewalk lies beneath me
Glass and steel, places to go
Still I'm not moving
The city never sleeps and I'm tired
Of keeping up with nothing to show
Standing here in limbo
Waiting for anything

Can i really have control?
Be the master of my destinations
It's just that when I start to fly
The stream of conciousness I indulge can stop me cold

Lately I don't need a reason
For the manic things I do
I go off just to feel emotion
'Cause at least it's something new

Another sidewalk lies beneath me
Glass and steel, places to go
Still I'm not moving
The city never sleeps and I'm tired
Of playing games with people who cheat
It's crazy here in limbo

Everybody tells me what I'm doing wrong
But I'm looking in the mirror
They're the same as me
Not sad or happy
Wanting somewhere to run too

Well you know it's been awhile
I kepp letting go of things and people too
Lately i really miss you
Yeah i miss you all the time
