

Wet Leg, It's Not Fun

I don't wanna go
I just wanna stay home
Gettin' fried like it's Halloween night
Lock myself in the bathroom
Hiding from the doom that's out there

You always try to make me talk
But we're not talking anymore
I gave it up with everything you used to weigh me down with
I cross my heart, I hope to die
Say everything will be alright
Well, in the end I guess it doesn't matter anyway

It's not fine, it's not fine
It's not fun, it's not fun

I'm not getting out of bed
I'm too in my head
I don't want you to see me like this
I don't want to waste your time
Don't want you wasting mine
I'm much better off without you

And I hate that you love me
So save it for somebody
Who actually gives a shit
Cause I'm not feelin' it

It's not fine, it's not fine
It's not fun, it's not fun

I don't wanna go
I just wanna stay home
I don't wanna go
I just wanna stay home

I don't wanna go
I just wanna stay home
Gettin' fried like it's Halloween night
Lock myself in the bathroom
Hiding from the doom that's out there

You always try to make me talk
But we're not talking anymore
I gave it up with everything you used to weigh me down with
I wanna laugh, I wanna cry
Which one it is, I can't decide
Well, in the end I guess it doesn't matter anyway
