

Wet Wet Wet, Big sister midnight

Ain't got enough, so I go out and get some more
It got so bad it nearly left me lying on the floor
I start to thinking that its wearing on my soul
But I got to get it better tonight
You know raindrops keep fallin on my windowpane (on my windowpane)
They make my company
Now I can hear them knocking on my door
Now. Should I let them in?
When I look at the faces baby
You see how the other half dies, yeah
And when I look at the faces baby
Ive got to, got to, got to
Let them come on in
Hey big sisters getting
Right out of order
Better keep looking
Or shell blow her cover
Shell get caught by Big Sister Midnight
I will only tell you stories
You will only tell me lies
I get the picture cause you never got it sold
I get it handed back, it turns into a tray of gold
Im just a victim of the promises you told
And I count the cost of living tonight
Youve gotta bottle the past and number the label (number the label)
Gotta drink to the future, girl and ready and able
Get a grip with a new fixation (with a new fixation)
And take them all and let them all in (should I let them in)
When I look at the faces baby
You see how the other half dies, yeah
And when I look at the faces baby
Ive got to, got to, got to
Let them come on in
Hey big sisters getting
Right out of order
Better keep looking
Or shell blow her cover
Shell get caught by Big Sister Midnight
I will only tell you stories
You will only tell me lies
Ooooh, ooooh, should I let them in
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Hey big sisters getting
Right out of order
Better keep looking
Or shell blow her cover
Shell get caught by Big Sister Midnight
I will only tell you stories
You will only tell me lies
Hey big sisters getting
Right out of order
Better keep looking
Or shell blow her cover
Shell get caught by Big Sister Midnight
I will only tell you stories
You will only tell me
I will only tell you stories
You will only tell me lies
Hey big sisters getting
Right out of order
Better keep looking
Or shell blow her cover
Shell get caught by Big Sister Midnight
I will only tell you stories

You will only tell me Lies
