

Wet Wet Wet, Perfect lie

Got away with my ambition
And all I ever wanted girl
Has been given, lately
But take away all of my chains
And say
They broke away, yeah, they broke away
Do you lead a better life
And even when the sweet, the sweet turns to bitter, like lately
Take away all of my chains
And say
They broke away, yeah, they broke away
And walking round outer place
Knowing that you've had a taste
Walking round out of place, ah oh
And knowing what your gonna do
To break down those chains
Lord I can't help you lady, no I can't help you baby, oh no
Do you lead a better life
And even when the sweet, the sweet turns to bitter, like lately
Take away all of my chains
And say
They broke away, yeah, they broke away, c'mon
Walking round out of place
knowing that you've had a taste
Walking round out of place, oh oh
Knowing what your gonna do
To break down those chains
Lord I can't help it lately, no I can't help it lately
Take away, all of my chains
And say
Broke away, yeah, they broke away, yeah
They broke away, yeah
Gimme love gimme love, gimme love
