

Wet Wet Wet, Roll 'um easy

Whoa I'm just a vagabond, a drifter on the run
And eloquent profanity, it rolled right off my tongue
And I have dined in palaces, drank wine with kings and queens
But darlin', darlin', you're the best thing I've ever seen
Well don't you roll um easy, so slow and easy
Take my independence, with no apprehension, no tension
You're walkin', talkin' blue paradise, sweet paradise, um
Say I've been across this country, from Denver to the ocean
And I've never met girls that could sing so sweet like the angels that live in London town
Singing roll um easy, so slow and easy
Play the concertina be a temptress
And baby I'm defenseless
Singing harmony, oh in a unisons, sweet harmony
I'm gonna hoist your flag and I'll beat your drum, oh
Yeah
Whoa I'm just a vagabond, a drifter on the run
And eloquent profanity, it rolled right off my tongue
And I have dined in palaces, drank wine with kings and queens
But darlin', darlin', you're the best thing I've ever seen
