

Wet Wet Wet, Share you love

There's an evil wind
That blows no good, yeah
There's a song
That don't love
Like I know it should
Woh, how lonesome
You must be
It's a shame
If you don't share some of your love with me
It's a heartache
You know when your love is gone
But it's bad
And even sadder, oh later on, oooooh
There's no one blinder
No one blinder
Then you won't see
It's a shame
If you don't share some of your love with me
I can't help it
oh, not now she's gone
I must try to forget
Because I've got to live on
Oh it's a good thing
It's a sweet thing
When your love has gone
But it's bad
And even sadder
Oh, when it's not returned
Oh how lonesome
How lonesome
You must be
Gonna be sad
And even sadder
If you don't share some of your love with me
Some of your love with me
Gonna be a bad bad shame
If you don't share some of your love with me
