

Weta, Let It Go

Should it mean much to you
If I hang my head
Now I want my own time
To lift my empty hands

Should chew right through it
Should think it over
Should hold on to it
Should just lose it

Now I see right through you
Into your empty space
You make it seem so easy
Deliver the bitter taste

Should chew right through it
Should think it over
Should hold on to it
Should just lose it

Don't wanna give you up
Should I scream to make you hold my hand?
I wonder how I'm gonna hold myself

Should just let it go
Let it go

Sure don't mean much do you
But you're in my head
I'm looking in from the outside
But there's no turning back

Should chew right through it
Should think it over
Should hold on to it
Should just lose it

Don't wanna give you up
Should I scream to make you hold my hand?
I wonder how I'm gonna hold myself

Should just let it go
Let it go

Now I see right through you
Into your empty space
You make it seem so easy
Deliver the bitter taste

Should chew right through it
Should think it over
Should hold on to it
Should just lose it

Don't wanna give you up
Should I scream to make you hold my hand?
I wonder how I'm gonna hold myself

Should just let it go
Let it go
Let it go
Let it go
