

Wheat, Closer To Mercury

I would've walked behind
I would've walked beside you
I would've told you every lie
I would've done that just for you
Open your eyes sometime
It's funny how I adore you
Gonna get every line just fine
I'll even sing it for you now

There was a time I felt
The morning sun rose up for you
I would've whispered in your ear
I would make coffee for you
I would have crossed that line
I could have drawn it for you
Tell me that everything is fine
Couldn't you do that for me

Because I'm a fan
From way back when you faltered
Waiting for your man
If you can remember
I was standing there with you

Wouldn't you say
That I've been an idiot for you
I couldn't shake you if I tried
I light a candle for you
Somehow the time flies by
