

Wheat, I Met A Girl

I met a girl I'd Like to know better but I'm already with someone (x2)

Everyone stands on the corner promiscuously Looking like something to fight and for something to beat Did anyone else see that girl who was pulling away Like if she pulled off to the side I'd have something to say

I met a girl I'd like to know better
But I'm already with someone (x2)

And you've got permission to see other men while you sleep And we wage perpetual war for perpetual peace
One says hey what gives with you
The other says hey what gives with you It's this pace that gets to you all right

I met a girl I'd like to know better
but I'm already with someone (x3)

And it's so so long When you're so so wrong

We interweave so much that we've lost a bit of solid ground All for a kiss the things that we miss are leveling out
And I waste my time question it drage my heels a bit Forever pressures me now I want to be Wrapped in rhythm soul space and rock and roll
Nothing appeals to me like bottoming out
And I erase time sleep a bit smoke the rest of it Becasue time don't mean a thing without

I met a girl I'd like to know better
but I'm already with someone (x6)
