

Wheatus, I got you

I got you, and thats all I want
I wont forget, and thats a whole lot
I dont go out now that youre in
Sometimes we shout, thats no problem
I dont know why sometimes I get frightened
You can see my eyes and tell that Im not lying
Look at you, youre a pageant
Youre everything, that Ive imagined
Somethings wrong, I feel uneasy
You show me, tell me youre not teasing
I dont know why sometimes I get frightened
You can see my eyes and tell that Im not lying
I dont know why sometimes I get frightened
You can see my eyes and tell that Im not lying
I dont know why sometimes I get frightened
You can see my eyes and tell that Im not lying
I dont know why sometimes I get frightened
You can see my eyes and tell that youre not mine
