

Wheel Catherine, Come Back Again

Another year
A time event
To take you there
Another time
Another time
Another year
I make it fail
Another time
Some time to kill
Come back to love
Return to love
So don't reap all
It's a small part
The friction starts
Come back again
Come back again
Come back again
Come back again
Come back again
Come back again
She said
Blow the light away
Come back again
Come back again
You never missed
I tell you this
Come back again
Come back again
You know how it feels
My name is clinging so
Be mine, be mine, be there
You can't, you can't, you are here always
Fade away there
To share today
You love to know
Come back again
Come back again
Come back again
